Councilmen Answer Recall Charges, Say Action Spurred By 'Malcontents'

NORTHGATE IS BURIED BY VOTERS, 570 TO 38

Residents of Broadmoor and Garden Village decisively rejected a proposal to incorporate their community as City of Northgate, 570-38, in a special election this Tuesday.

Approximately one-third of the area's 1748 registered voters turned out at the three polling places, most of them to register their opposition to incorporation as a sixth class city.

It was the first incorporation election in the county's history in which there were no candidates for city council positions in event the voters approved incorporation. As a result, there were 31 write-in candidates, none of whom polled more than three votes.

Most Unusual

The county elections department, in terming the Northgate election one of the most unusual in the county's history, revealed that there was only one absentee ballot, but that the county board of supervisors would have to conduct a special meeting Monday to canvass the ballot.

The Northgate vote was considered a fore-gone conclusion, because of the almost unanimous sentiment against incorporation under drastically reduced boundaries which included only Broadmoor and Garden Village, as compared with an original proposal which encompassed all of Colma, Unincorporated.

Voting by precincts was as follows:

Precint 1 (Garden Village school) 12 for, 221 against.

Precinct 2 (Broadmoor police station) 15 for, 188 against.

Precinct 3 (Pierson garage, 804

The three councilmen who are targets of a recall movement today answered charges listed against them and denied them generally and specifically.

Today marked the deadline during which councilman Micheal De Bernardi, Sanford Vickers and Del Wilson, under laws governing municipal recall elections, could answer the three charges levied against them by the Better Government for Daly City group.

The charges included: "Disregard of the wishes of the people of Daly City; questionable bidding procedures; and permitting violation of legally required fiscal procedures."

Said Councilman Del Wilson, "I should like to reply to the charges of the so-called Better Government Group, but since the charges consist of a series of vague generalities my reply can be no more specific than the charges."

"Conform To Law"

Wilson stated that, "Our bidding procedures have been conformed to the letter of the law." He added that, "Fiscal procedures under direct control of the council and the city manager, are rigidly controlled by state and local laws."

He concluded that, "I feel somewhat ridiculous in attempting to combat the 'windmill' of wild unsound charges of a disgruntled, frustrated city official. I will continue to remember my oath of office, to represent all the people."

Councilman Vickers opened by saying, "I emphatically deny these charges by Ruth A. Moseley and the so-called Better Government league, whose members are not listed in any manner.

"Few Malcontents"

"There are a few malcontents who create animosity in government. They are concerned only in personal gain and vested interests."

He claimed, "All business transactions of our city are carried out according to general law of the state of California and the city ordinance of our city.

"The people of Daly City have given me a high trust. I have not, nor will not, betray that trust."

Councilman De Bernardi said, "The wishes and desires of the people are always the first consideration of myself as well as the other councilmen.

"All bids let by the city council have been in accordance with a state law, and even those bids not being limited by state law have been let in a manner more economical to the taxpayers of Daly City.

"All departments of the city... have adhered to the fiscal proced-

B'MOOR COUPLE FLEE HOME AS CLIFF FALLS

Dreading that their home will end up crashing down a 40-foot cliff into the middle of the Vista Del Mar school site, a distraught Broadmoor couple moved from their house, 932 Bradley drive, Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. James Bullis have watched huge chunks of their property and the adjacent school site slip from the top of the hill for the past two weeks.

The Bullis house is located (at press time) at the top of a hill overlooking the Jefferson elementary school district land. During the past weeks portions of the cliff, saturated with rain, have tumbled down until the Bullis house is now a mere three or four feet away from the cliff. Originally the residence was a good 18 feet from the drop.

Mr. and Mrs. Bullis have contacted their attorney, James J. Duryea, about the possibility of filing suit, Mrs. Bullis told THE RECORD earlier this week. Duryea said today, however, that decision on the suit awaits soil engineer findings on the practibility of preventing further damage in the present rainy weather.

Erect Fence

Mrs. Bullis contacted school officials on January 16 when the slides first began. However, she told this paper that the school's only action was to erect a fence on top of the cliff, supposedly to keep children away from the slide area.

While a reporter from this newspaper was viewing the damage, three boys ducked under the strands of the fence to the danger area and proceeded to walk along the cliff. Mrs. Bullis declared today that children have since knocked down portions of the fence in their eagerness to view the damage.

Superintendent H. Z. Weibel, in speaking of the problem at the regular meeting of the board on Wednesday night, explained to trustees that a "temporary barricade" had been erected by the district.

Action Impossible

He further stated that he, Business Manager David Shapiro, Architect Mario Ciampi and Engineer Edwin Smith, had all viewed the damage. Weibel said that it was Smith's opinion, based on soil engineer's tests, that nothing could be done at the present time. The superintendent added that a soil engineer from Henry Doelger

DC MOTHERS TO MARCH AGAINST INFANTILE PARALYSIS TUESDAY

Fifth annual "Mothers' March" will see hundreds of mothers in the local areas ringing doorbells next Tuesday night between 7 and 8 p.m. All residents are reminded to leave their porch lights burning on the night of the march.

Chairman of the Daly City, Broadmoor and Colma march is Mrs. Sanford Vickers.

The March, which climaxes the month-long "March of Dimes," is organized through the cooperation of members of Parent-Teacher associations. Wearing special identification cards, these volunteers have plans to cover every residential area.

National quota for the 1956 "March of Dimes" is $47,600,00. Contributions from the "Mothers' March" in the past have been a backbone of the campaign, according to Mrs. Frederick W. Lange, county chairman of Women's Activities for the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

Mrs. Lange points out that the national total of polio cases in 1955 was 30,000, sixth highest in 40 years of recorded incidence.

"For thousands, the Salk vaccine came too late," she states. "National Foundation aid is still being given to over 100 persons in San Mateo county alone. This aid includes not only hospitalization and therapy, but also costly emergency equipment such as iron lungs, chest respirators and rocking beds."

March of Dimes money helped train Dr. Jonas Salk whose vaccine for the prevention of polio was given free to over 300 school children in the county last year.

MRS. JOHN FRANUSICH, 663 Templeton avenue, will be among the women who will join the "Mothers' March" on Tuesday night. Special reason for her interest is her five-year-old son, Patrick, who was stricken with polio three years ago. Patrick's leg brace and treatment were made available through "March of Dimes" funds. Mrs. Franusich urges residents to leave their porch lights burning between 7 and 8 p.m. Tuesday night so that she and other mothers may stop to collect donations. Shown here are (left to right): Mrs. Franusich, Patrick, Mrs. J. White and her sons, Allen and Steve.

That Daly City novice pilot, DAVID F. ANDERSON, 25, of 98 Muirwood drive, who delayed some 12 flights at the Oakland International Airport last week, when he became lost in a cloud, should have signalled the San Francisco airport tower.

He might have got more solace from NORMAN MERKEL, operator of the SF tower, who is another Daly City resident.

Pardons: We said last week that the local motor vehicle office would be handing out DAD prefixes on the auto licenses this week.

Seems there was a delay and they're still passing out DAAs. Reason we know is that a very expectant mother and her hubbie thought they'd get one of the DADs sort of as a memento of the occasion.

The DADs will have to wait a little longer, both for appropriate licenses and the new arrival.

Lincoln School Offer Is $113,000 To $135,000

Offers of $113,000 and $135,000 for the Abraham Lincoln school were made the Jefferson elementary school district board by the Henry Doelger corporation Wednesday night. The higher price is for a full perimeter site, while the $113,000 figure is for a site with a row of houses on one side.

Both offers include all street and utility improvements, according to Carl Timmons, Doelger engineer. When quizzed as to cost of the improvements as related to the total price, Timmons gave a $60,000 figure on the higher price 10.10 acre site and a $40,000 figure on the lower offer for 10.13 acres. He emphasized that both figures were approximate.

Not Bare Land

"Mr. Doelger does not want to sell the bare land alone," Timmons told the board. He explained that selling the bare land to the school district would mean that the district might not install improvements for two or three years, thus stalling Doelger plans for build-

Golden Gloves Boxing Show Set February 9

Golden Gloves amateur boxing tournament will be held for the second straight year at the Daly City community center on Thursday, February 9.

The Our Lady of Perpetual Help church Men's club promoters of boxing shows at the center in the past, secured approval of the city council Monday night to conduct the show.

The OLPH group had to gain approval of the show because previously the council had set a policy that such boxing activities would have to be conducted on Saturday night.

Walter Gillies and Dick Liberty, representing the Men's club, explained that the Golden Gloves boxing program was a special event.

Recreation commission chairman Edmund Cavagnaro said it was "the first I've heard of this, but conceded that it would be all right to hold the show on Thursday if it "wasn't going to set a precedent."

Councilmen were unanimous in approving the date for the show. The Men's club will pay a fee of $90 for rental of the center, $55 for having the ring installed, and five per cent of all receipts grossed over $500, not including beer sales.

Treasurer Renews Feud Over Counting Parking Meter Coin

City Treasurer Paul Selmi, who says under city ordinance that he is supposed to county parking meter revenue, renewed his attack on the city council and City Manager Howard Stites Monday night.

Leader of a recall movement against three of the councilmen, said, "I'm entitled to an answer. There are discrepancies in handling the money. It is being handled in an illegal manner."

Selmi was referring to a letter which he wrote to the city manager asking whether or not he was to count the money as stipulated in the city ordinance or be relieved of the responsibility.

The treasurer charged that his letter never got past the city manager.

"Didn't Know About It"

"Mr. Stites' answer to me said 'on the advice of the city council' and yet Mr. Dennis (councilman Edward J. Dennis) didn't know anything about it," Selmi claimed.

Mayor Joseph Verducci answered, "Your first statement, as far as the letter to the council is concerned, is wrong. The letter got to the council. It was read to us in study session. My statement at the time was 'let's cooperate with the treasurer all we can.' "

Selmi asked again, "Why didn't I get an answer?", to which the mayor replied, "We directed the

JEFF HIGH STAFF ASKS $450 RAISE 'ACROSS BOARD'

Board of trustees will meet with Jefferson Union High school teachers Monday night to discuss teachers' proposal for a $450 "across the board" salary increase. Request for the raise was incorporated in a letter sent board members and Superintendent Stanford Hannah by the teachers' association finance committee.

Estimated cost of providing the recommended increase for the 65 teachers now on the staff is $25,000, according to the finance committee. Teachers freely admit, however, that the figure does not take into account the 20 or 30 additional faculty members to be hired for Westmoor High school.

Present salary schedule is as follows: bachelor of arts degree, $3800; bachelor of arts degree plus 30 units, $4000; and bachelor of arts degree plus 60 units, $4200 to $6800. The schedule also provides advancement for years' experience in teaching.

"We are fully aware that the governing board has succeeded in keeping Jefferson High school operating at the lowest per average daily attendance cost in San Mateo county," the letter reads. "This might be questioned as a sound educational policy if continued in the light of the rapidly expanding enrollment."

Alleged policy of past boards of concentrating on the building program instead of on teaching salaries was condemned in the letter.

"What good is a three million dollar plant if it must be staffed

VERDUCCI ANNOUNCES BID FOR SECOND TERM

Mayor Joseph Verducci, member of the city council since 1952, today announced he would seek a second term at the municipal election April 10. He is the first candidate to formally announce intention to run for city council.

In announcing he would seek re-election as an independent candidate, Verducci said his platform primarily would consist of "attempting to help guide Daly City through the transition period of growth and trying to maintain the city as a clean, wholesome community that we can be proud to live in."

Specifically, he said he would, if re-elected," continue to work for completion and improvement of Daly City's park system; strive for closer cooperation between city and school government to avoid duplication of facilities; and pursue policies which will result in further efficiency and economy in government."

The mayor said, "I feel if the voters of Daly City re-elect me they will profit by my experience in office during the transition period which saw the community grow from a population of approximately 20,000 to its present 27,000."

Verducci, head football coach and director of athletics at San Francisco State college, has served as mayor of Daly City since 1954.

He is married and lives with his wife, Florence, and three children, Florence Joan, 15, Dianne, 13, and Jerold, 6, at 118 Wilshire avenue.

Name New Officers At Jeff High

Jim Honeywell, all-around athlete, was named Monday as president of the Jefferson High school student body for the coming semester, which starts February 6.

He and a slate of 13 other officers were installed yesterday at a special student body assembly.

Honeywell narrowly defeated Edward Dennis Jr. in the run-off election Monday. Honeywell will take over the position held last semester by Bob Grubb.

In the run-off race for vice-president, Ron Bygum won out over Pamela Hix, while Laurel Smith topped Carolyn Brown for the treasurer post.

Other new officers include: Joanna Freeman, secretary; Ron Swanson, head sgt-at-arms; James Shoots, judge; Arlene Storm, head yell leader; Bruce Babbitt, Luanne Charpenter, Phyllis Thur, yell leaders; Elise Carpenter, head pep girl; Arlene "Bunny" Barone, Nadja Colby, Dianne Ramaciotti, pep girls.

JESD TEMPORARY SCHOOL IS UNDER DOELGER STUDY

Possibility of Henry Doelger corporation providing houses to be converted into temporary class rooms to ease double sessions is "under discussion" at the present time, according to Jack Kendree, Doelger official. Expected answer to the Jefferson elementary school district's question on the plan was not received at Wednesday night's board meeting.

When Acting Chairman Henry Kraus asked whether trustees felt they should "push Doelger," the board agreed to write a follow-up letter requesting an answer by the next meeting on February 8.

Queries made in the original letter to the Doelger corporation were as follows, according to Su-

PLUMBER GRADO FIRST TO TAKE COUNCIL PAPERS

Plumber Sam Grado, 88 West Cavour street, took out nomination papers yesterday for the office of city council.

Yesterday was the first day that nomination papers could be taken from the city clerk's office, and Grado was the first and only candidate to appear up to press time.

Under a new law, all candidates for office shall list their occupation in their nomination papers and this occupation must be the same as listed under their registration. Grado, who formerly designated his occupation as pipefitter, changed it to plumber yesterday and re-registered with City Clerk B. C. Ross.

There is space for 10 signatures on the nomination papers.

Grado was not available for comment yesterday on his platform.

Besides the two council positions to be filled at the April 10 election, the voters will select a city treasurer and clerk. Treasurer Paul Selmi has already announced he intends to seek re-election, while Ross says, "There's still plenty of time to decide."

Terms of Councilmen Joseph Verducci and Edward J. Dennis expire April 10.

Deadline for filing for all of the elective offices is 12 noon, February 16.

city manager to answer you."

The treasurer claimed the letter he received from Stites did not answer his question.

Copies of Selmi's letter and Stites' answer were then read.

Selmi's Convenience

In essence, Stites answer said there was nothing in administrative procedure which prevented Selmi from counting the money. The letter also said the time for counting the revenue on the money-counting machine in the controller's office could be set at Selmi's convenience.

After the manager's reply was read, Verducci then asked Selmi, "Wherein wasn't your question answered?"

"I asked you to comply with the law," retorted the treasurer. "That letter doesn't say anything about it. I'm the authority who shall pick who will count the money."

Asked what the law was on the matter, City Attorney Frank Blum said, "The question is where is the counting machine going to be located. There is nothing in procedure to prevent the treasurer from counting the money. If he's not doing it, that's his business. It's certainly being done in a legal manner."

"Just The Opposite"

"Last time Blum said just the opposite," countered Selmi.

Blum, angered by Selmi's accusation, said, "You haven't been counting the money. If it is your duty, why don't you do it? You have a way of recalling things that happen everywhere but at the council chambers."

Verducci asked Selmi where he would count the money if he had the counting machine. Selmi said, "in the city hall, but I want some assistance."

Commenting on Selmi's charges of discrepancies in the counting since it was taken over by the controller, Councilman Sanford Vickers asked, "Weren't there ever any discrepancies in the funds up to this time? You're giving the impression the funds were in perfect order before they started counting them."

Selmi retorted, "I don't care to discuss it with you."

$3 Discrepancy

Stites pointed out that there was a net discrepancy of $3 out of over $5000 deposited with the bank. "That means some 300,000 coins," the manager explained.

He said the city was now passing the coins through a sorter, then counting them. "This was never done by the city before. They just took the bank's word. There was no way of knowing if there were any discrepancies," the manager related.

Commenting to Selmi that, "We've heard you three times now," Verducci said it was a "closed issue."

After a brief interlude, Selmi arose to charge the council with non-compliance with the law on a second issue. He said that $10,000 was taken from the extension and replacement fund of the water department to the municipal water fund, current operating expenditures, and claimed this was in non-compliance of a resolution which was passed to protect holders of the municipal revenue water bonds.

Prepare Report

Stites said he would prepare a report for the next meeting on the fiscal matter.

Controller Jerome Scharfman said after the meeting that the $10,000 transfer was included as an item in the budget for 1955-56 and that it was available for scrutiny at the budget hearing last year.

In other business Monday, the council:

1. Approved transferring $1000 from unappropriated reserve to the salary account of the city attorney to defray costs of codifying the city ordinances.

2. Instructed Blum to prepare ordinance which will give all city employees a full year of industrial accident pay.

3. Received letter of thanks from East Vista property owners for the city's cooperation during the recent floods which brought torrents of mud into several homes. The letter also lauded the city for having the necessary heavy equipment on hand to handle the mopping up operations.

3. Requested the state to beautify El Camino Real between A street on the south and Market on the north.

4. Resolved that San Francisco proceed with removal of street car tracks on Mission street from San Pedro road on the south to Templeton avenue on the north.

5. Received letter from Jefferson Elementary school asking vacation of Lausanne street between Thiers and Gambetta.

Samuel Brannan, Mormon leader, was the first to publicize in San Francisco the discovery of gold at Sutter's saw mill on the American river.

ing in the area.

First question of price by the board came from Trustee Joseph Lewkowitz, who bluntly asked, "Why such a high price?"

Timmons explained that leaving the perimeter areas and installation of underground utilities was a costly matter.

"Isn't there some way Doelger could be a little easy on the school district's pocketbook?" Lewkowitz persisted.

"Reject It"

"If you don't like the offer, reject it and make one yourselves to Mr. Doelger," was Timmons' reply.

He went on to explain that the Doelger corporation would be agreeable to the district buying the land parcel by parcel each year with interest to be paid on the balance.

Timmons ended by asking the board to select one site for consideration by next board meeting, February 8, so that Doelger might proceed with plans for building in the area.

In other action Wednesday night the board:

1. Heard Miss Marilyn Thompson, first grade; Mrs. Ann Gray, third grade; Miss Cecille Paynter, fourth grade, and Russell Jones, eighth grade, present a panel discussion on the teaching of handwriting in district schools.

Sale of Bonds

2. Approved sale of $241,000 in bonds, which Superintendent H. Z. Weibel said would not increase the tax rate because of the expected rise in assessed valuation.

3. Tabled signing Mario Ciampi's contract for Abraham Lincoln and Pauline Brown schools.

4. Refused a request by Orrin R. Gesas, real estate broker, that the board reconsider their recommendation that a service station not be built on Hillside and Market streets across from Colma school.

5. Employed George T. Thomson as an inspector for the Benjamin Franklin school. Former inspector Robert Hale has submitted his resignation.

BILL DEGLIANTONI, local roofer and member of the county grand jury, is hospitalized again. Bill was in bed for quite a spell last year when he suffered a heart attack.

It was interesting to note that THOMAS NOONAN, who headed the Northgate incorporation drive, received only one write-in vote for councilman at Tuesday's election, while HAROLD RICHARDSON, an ardent foe of incorporation, got three votes to tie for first in the standings. Had the incorporation issue passed, Richardson would find himself a councilmen on the city he did not want to see formed.

THE RECORD will carry a feature story next week on Fred's history.

Somebody in southeastern Daly City is rumoring that the city is going to launch a mammoth drainage program, for which each homeowner will be assessed $55 a front foot, which would mean $1375 for a property owner with 25-foot frontage. As we said, it's a rumor and nothing more. Even the drainage district plan brought up a year ago, which would have cost a maximum of $55 per home, has apparently been discarded.

with improperly qualified teachers due to an inadequate salary schedule?" the letter asks. "It is a matter of record that over a 25-year period Jefferson trustees increased this plant in some years with funds which should have been allocated for teachers' salaries."

The letter claims that the suggested raise would bring the Jefferson schedule closer to those of San Francisco and some San Mateo county schools.

Counting Change--Changing of the Guard

Citizens, one and all, the ponderous question of who shall count the nickels and dimes from the parking meters is now upon us.

Whereas in days of yore the city treasurer bagged up the coppers and trundled them to the august precincts of the bank for a tally, now the job has been taken over by a less sedate, but probably as efficient, money-counting machine.

There is nothing remiss in this, except for one thing, says the city treasurer. The city treasurer should hold sway over the official counting of the money. Sort of like changing of the guard at Buckingham Palace.

The job has been usurped by a city controller and a license collector, who reign over the tabulation of the coins while sundry city employees witness the performance.

The city treasurer points to the fact that the ordinance stipulates the parking meter revenues shall be counted by the city treasurer.

A legal interpretation, however, points out that duties of a city official are delegable, and can be performed by others. The fact that the ordinance says the city treasurer shall count the money does not presume that the treasurer shall inspect all the Indian head nickels and Roosevelt dimes. There is a certain leeway. The same leeway that allowed the bank to count the money while the treasurer merely certified this tabulation. This is all within the statutory sphere of the "city treasurer shall count," etc.

In order to accommodate his interest in the chore, the "usurpers" have agreed that the city treasurer may pull up a chair at any and all countings. Moreover, they have asked the treasurer to name a time at his convenience for the cash count.

But the treasurer begs the question. Says he, I want an official ruling on whether or not the ordinance says I shall count the money. Everybody seems to agree that's what the ordinance says. And nobody says the treasurer shall be impeded in the pursuit of his duty.

Lest there be misgivings, we ask his fellow officials to beseech the treasurer to count the money.

On bended editorial knee, we ask—Please Count the Money!

PTA COMMITTEE meeting to plan for next Tuesday's "Mothers' March" is here conducted by Mrs. Sanford Vickers (standing). Tuesday night's event which climaxes the month-long "March of Dimes" will be held from 7 to 8 p.m. All local residents are urged to leave their porch lights burning to signify that they intend to donate "a littel extra" to National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis funds. Shown here (left to right) are Mesdames: J. R. Buchanan, Holy Angels; J. H. Taylor, James L. Snell; C. L. Tydingco, Woodrow Wilson; G. Marchetti, Colma; J. Mosman, Our Lady of Perpetnal Help; J. White, Crocker-Pershing, and W. M. Rudometkin, Hillside. Not present were representatives from Jefferson Union high school, Our Lady of Mercy and Westlake.

Two For Tonight

By Leonore Brewer

Opening January 29 at the Geary Theatre in their only Northern California appearance is the Ballet Espanol, starring Teresa and Luisillo and a company of thirty. Assembled in Paris two years ago, this is their second year in the United States and their first appearance on the West Coast. So we have done a little digging through the national magazines to see what impression they made in such cosmopolitan centers as New York and Chicago. In a word, WOW!

The comments on Teresa and Luisillo are simply ecstatic, with critics thumbing through their Thesaurus to find new words to replace glowing, incandescent and dazzling, all of which have become threadbare and dull in the presence of these artists.

We're sure that any number of readers can think of companies which have been carried along simply through the extraordinary power of their leading dancers, with the rest of the company dragging through its paces. So we checked the Eastern reviews on this point, because two stars no matter how scintillating do not make a show. The concensus of opinion was that like all truly great artists, Teresa and Luisillo are not afraid to surround themselves with a strong company of handsome young people who "stamp, clap, flirt and dance their way through a long program" with just as much energy at the end, a Cafe Flamenco scene, as at the rise of the curtain.

Elaborate Production

Their program includes the authentic Spanish dances done in the Provinces of the country and also the more classical ballets performed in the sophisticated cities of Madrid and Seville. One of their most impressive works is "Luna de Sangre," a variation on the Romeo and Juliet tale.

Besides the dances, two virtuoso guitarists, a Flamenco singer and two pianists, the company brings its own stage crew of twenty, including carpenters and electricians in addition to the customary property men and wardrobe mistress and assistants. All of which adds up to make Ballet Espanol the most elaborate production to be seen in the current theatrical season.

"Oklahoma!" Coming

One of the great American stage classics is "Oklahoma!" and filmwise, one of the big events of 1956 will be the showing of the Todd-AO screen version. The Coronet has received the nod to play this picture and will shortly close down for $100,000 screen installation to handle the new process.

Sometime ago we read some interesting statistics based on "if you had invested $100 in 'Oklahoma!' what would your return be by now?" We haven't been able to track down the exact figures, but can safely state that the only difference between having angeled this musical and having sunk a successful oil well is that the musical would have been more fun. Financially, you would have come out about even.

South City Asks DC Drain Program Aid

Daly City's participation in a $1,012,000 South San Francisco drainage program was frowned upon by the city council Monday night.

According to South San Francisco officials, Daly City's share of the project would only amount to a fraction of the cost.

Councilman Sanford Vickers held that, "If we could correct our own drainage problems without joining a district, we'd be better off."

City Manager Howard Stites pointed out, however, that, "You might have a more distasteful district forced upon us if we don't go in on this." He said he was referring to the county-wide drainage district.

The issue was held over for further consideration.

Victor Gilbert Is Grad Of Virginia Army School

FORT EUSTIS, VA.—Pvt. Victor C. Gilbert, son of Mrs. Ceallaeh L. Winters, 651 Crocker avenue, recently was graduated from the Army's Transportation School at Fort Eustis, Va.

Private Gilbert completed the school's harbor craft crewman course in which he was taught maintenance of small marine vessels. During the course he took a training cruise to apply his knowledge gained in the classroom.

The 17-year-old soldier entered the Army last July and completed basic training at Fort Carson, Colo.

Village Notes

By Gwin Mitchell

PL 5-0679

We heard something the other day which perked up the typewriter considerably—Corinne and Mayo Bryce are working on a plan to go to Europe this summer! It's one of the Gibson tours—47 days abroad in Europe, with 4 or 5 days in each place. State College is underwriting it and anybody who has $1580 can go along. If 15 people go, Mayo will go as instructor, and if 25 go, Corinne gets to accompany him. No wonder excitement is running high on Garden Lane! The lump sum pays for passage from New York over and back by boat, and the tour on land by bus. Excluded are meals in London, Paris and Rome, because of all the famous restaurants which every one will want to try, and gift shopping, naturally. All the disbursing is done by coupon, which does away with all the frantic arithmetic at every border where a new monetary system starts!

They plan to see the art museums and famous cathedrals, of course, but there will be quite a bit of behind-the-scenes art to see, such as lace-making factories, tapestries being woven, leather-working shops and the like. Art in action, for students for credit or for those who want to go for personal pleasure and enrichment. Plans also include visits to the opera in some of the famous houses, and there will be "days off," when each person can roam where and when he or she pleases just before the tour leaves a location. Wonder if the Bryces could use a spare reporter or something?

Florence Reyes of Midway and daughter Roxanne didn't travel as far as Europe, but they have just come home after spending two months with Florence's family in Seattle. Her father and three sisters are there, and other relatives, and with the visit taking in Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's, it must have been a most wonderful one.

The tom-tom music you may hear from Village Lane Monday night is only heap big project being talked up by Marian Olsen, Betty Bullen, Louise Cloonan, Pinky Herald, Marion Connelly, and chairman Ann Lawyer. They are all meeting at Marian's house to work on decorations et al for the Indian Guides banquet next Saturday night, at which a large assorted group of Village fathers and sons will join others in powwowing like mad!

One of our Village maids is four years old now, courtesy of a birthday party on 87th street. The lucky girl is Shelley Alba, who invited Nancy Swoverland, Timmy O'Brien, Sally LaDassor, David, Robert and Leana Alba, and Donna, Pammie and Joy Lynn MacCarthy to enjoy her special dolldress cake. That's the kind little girls see on disp lay in bakery windows and dream over—the ones with the doll on top and the icing scalloped around and down like a full balldress. . . .

Speaking of parties, Marge Reuter gave one too, up on Larchmont, except her's was a Stanley party for mothers. Marjorie Geneze, Rowena Wilson, Jane Scroup, Jean Landess, Mary Contreras, Helen Mahoney, Anita Shanoian, Joan O'Brien, Jean Morena, Tina Brudvig, Harriet Loftus and Margaret Stern were the guests, and Lil Avanzino helped Marge dispense hospitality and refreshments as a co-hostess should.

Hear tell where Geri Furst, home economist extraordinaire of Village Lane, will be speaking on home freezing and frozen foods at the auditorium in the Emporium Stonestown on February 1. Geri's talk is part of a series on the art of gracious living given each Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. through February 15. Geri knows all about her subject—have you ever tasted her frozen packaged appetizers?

As long as we're in Stonestown, take note that the Red Chimney was recently the locale for a birthday luncheon honoring Helene Gurewitz. Kay Mattson, Alice Travinsky and Vi Zaitz took advantage of husbands being home on Saturday and went with her, leaving all their cares behind on Midway for said husbands to look after, including all the children! From all reports, the ladies had a lovely time and the husbands and children survived!

The musical sounds coming from Helga Giesecke's Stewart avenue home mean that she is busy rehearsing herself and her friends for a program to be given at the 60th anniversary celebration of the Swedish Ladies society. Helga, as you know, plays a mean accordion, and has been concentrating on her piano lately, and her musical friends have been joining her for program practice. She also plans to play at the birthday party of an old friend being given at the Cliff House next month.

Jerry Hess turned three, and had a birthday party down 87th street way. Of course, he invited his cousins, and after they got there, he managed to fit in a few guests who weren't relatives. Janet Brugge, Steven Andrade, Philip and Denise King, and Jeffrey Meitz were the friends and neighbors, and the cousins—well, there were 13! Danny, Susan and Buddy Hess came up from Belmont; Judy, Nancy and Linda Hess came down from upper 87th street; Carol, Michael and Susan van Hecke came up from Brentwood; Karen, Gary and Terry Collins came up from Linda Mar; and last, but not least, the newest cousin, Cheryl Ann Reedy, came down from San Francisco! And of course, brothers John and Jim were there for the excitement.

Unfortunately, we have a sick list again, but fortunately, most everybody on it has pretty well recovered by now. Michael and Barbara Northrup had to take their turns with chicken pox, and Harriet Hagerman, with daughter Elaine keeping her company, wasn't feeling so good for a while. First grade teacher Mrs. Carrie Schneider has been ill ever since vacation with a virus; everyone hopes she'll be back soon. Young Tommy Corso thought nothing of an operation he had a while back—he began climbing chairs the minute they let him out of bed! And William Nagle, on Beechwood, is feeling much better after his operation.

One lifesaver during a recent rainy Sunday was "The African Lion," which kept small Feists from Sweetwood and small Mitchells from Maddux happy for a couple of hours. It was the start of an animal round trip at our house; first, African animals, then a short on penquins, then Disney's "Peter and the Wolf." After which, home to see Lassie on TV, with several more animals on the next show, and then finally back to Africa again on "The Ivory Hunters!" It's getting so that most children today know more about animals in Africa than they do about the homegrown variety.

The stork keeps busy, rain or no, and there are now three more new Village residents. Young George Victor Salet, Jr., is now living on Stewart avenue with parents Ruth and George, and two proud brothers, Clifford and James. And a sweet small girl, Catherine Ann, will be around to keep brother Steven happy at the Charles and Betty Gonzales home on Sweetwood. 6 lbs., 10 oz. she was, too. There is also a proud grandma on Larchmont, Elisa Galvez, who is beaming over Regina Annette, 6 lbs. 13½ oz. Parents Miriam and Charles Lewellyn kind of glad, too.

We would like to offer our sympathies to Alma Wittig and her family on the death of her husband, Fred. Alma is the kind and friendly "nursery lady" who keeps the babies while their parents are in coffee class or teaching Sunday school at the Broadmoor Presbyterian church, and who has kept the older children quiet and happy while their parents were at church. We know she has many friends who will join us in our offer.

Beechwood is losing many of its original families lately. Alice and Dan Kerr went to Palo Alto last fall, and now Renata and Don Costa have left for Mountain View. Word also has it that the Gerard family is planning to move to San Francisco.

Bea and Tom Gantert and four of their six children, together with Ginny and Dick Collins and their three children, and Tom and Shirley Dillon and two of their four children, took off a weekend or so ago for snow country. They located at Grass Valley and toured through Squaw Valley and Soda Springs. The snow was there, 85 inches of it, but so was the rain, and Bea said there were a lot of disconsolate skiers around. The gang took a couple of toboggans, though, and the children had fun for sure. The Dillons had never seen mountains or snow, and their reactions delighted everybody! The trip was cut a little short because the motel where they stayed was preparing to receive the evacuees from Yuba City, and our Villagers didn't want to take cabins which would have been needed for them.

Note in Passing: All the mothers in town will be busy sprucing up Cub and Scout uniforms for Boy Scout week next month so that small and larger sons can wear them proudly. . . . Roger Edler went to the Planetarium with Chuck Suenderman and David Fletcher after all. . . . Garden Lane will lose the Berstressers after the next term when John will leave S. F. State for Chico State. . . . The Gordon Feists had a visit from a very dear friend for a few days, Mrs. John Jewett from Van Nuys. . . . The Frank Silvermans and son Michael are spending the month of January in Mexico, with the rest of the family holding down the fort till they come back. . . . Helen Kolb is coping with the first riot of fun, helpfulness, questioning looks and very new looks which are part of a brand new Den Mother's early acquaintance with a brand new Cub Den.

LETTERS TO EDITOR

Scavengers Answer Last Week's Letter

Dear Editor:

In the January 19 edition, there appeared a letter to the editor in which a local resident had taken exception to the garbage service in Daly City and requested that his name be withheld.

It is quite surprising to this firm, that having received a telephone request to remove an extra can of garbage and dispatching a truck to the address, we would refuse to remove the garbage, particularly since the person requesting the service offered to pay extra.

This firm often gets requests for special service and has an established rate, depending upon the time involved. This special service extends from removing an extra can or excess garden trimmings, to the waste which is the result of an extensive basement or attic cleaning.

The additional service is as close as your telephone, and as prompt as the day of the call, or at the latest, the following day.

It is regretted that the writer of the letter which appeared in your last week's edition was dissatisfied with the service. This incident does not represent the policy of this company, and every reasonable effort and concession is made in order to render a complete and satisfactory garbage service to the community.

Very truly yours,
Al Sereni, President
Daly City Scavenger Company.

Worthy Matron.

Rotary To Hold Flood Relief Car Wash Saturday

Funds for Yuba City flood relief will be gained from water—of all things—when Daly City Rotary club conducts their "Flood Relief Car Wash" Saturday at Les Ritchie's Flying "A" Service, corner of Alemany and Lake Merced boulevards in Westlake.

Fourteen Rotarians and one professional car washer will man the water pumps and chamois from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. "Pay What You Will" is slogan for the car wash operation, and any donation will be accepted. All proceeds will go to the Yuba City flood relief fund.

Cars will be given a thorough washing and cleaning, both inside and out, according to Art Colvin, chairman of the project.

Ritchie, proprietor of the station, is donating the services of one of his employees, as well as all the car washing materials.

"Your auto will look good and you'll feel good in the knowledge that your donation will aid families in the stricken Yuba City area," said Colvin, in urging northern San Mateo county residents to get their cars washed Saturday.

The car wash campaign is one of the local Rotary club's many service projects.

MORE VOTERS MEAN MORE DC REVENUE

Daly City stands to realize $26 in state subventions for every new voter who registers in the $75 Homestead tract before the February 16 deadline, the council learned Monday night.

Under the motor vehicle in lieu tax allocations, two years after uninhabited property is annexed, the city will be given credit for all registered voters living in the area. Amount of the subvention is based on the number of registered voters in a city.

When the two year requirement is up next spring on the 440 acres annexed in Westlake, the city will realize about $62,000 more in state subventions from the motor vehicle tax.

SET VOTING HOURS FOR CITY ELECTION

City council Monday night officially set the voting hours from 7 a.m. to 8 p.m. for the April 10 municipal election.

It is probable that when the council meets this Saturday to establish voting precincts, they will have to add some new polling places because of the population growth since the last local election in 1954.

The Willoughby children, Judy and Billy of Abbot, spent last weekend at the Russian river. They went along with their grandparents to see that all was well with the folks' summer home. The children spend lots of time there so they were quite concerned about the damage the flood has done.

Here's hoping that the Hillside cake sale is a big success. Don Lesher, who just assumed the job of ways and means chairman seems to have everything under control. So remember to buy your goodies at the following stores: Sprouse Reitz (at the top of the hill) and Western Auto Store in Broadmoor. Oh yes, the date is February 4.

Jefferson elementary school district teachers will not ask for a salary increase this year, Fred Schweickhardt, chairman of the teachers' finance committee, told trustees at their meeting Wednesday night. District faculty members were granted a substantial raise last year.

Schweickhardt told the board that teachers were ready to submit four possible subjects for discussion with the board, these being: sabbatical, military and emergency leaves and exchange teachers.

Trustees will meet with representatives of the teachers' association at a later date.

The girls will be turned over to custody of San Mateo county juvenile authorities.

TUESDAY BUSY DAY FOR DC FIREMEN

Firemen were kept on the move Tuesday by two separate blazes which created a lot of smoke, little damage.

The department was first summoned at 1:54 a.m. to the home of Florence Hollenbeck, 55 Templeton avenue, to quench a mattress fire that apparently started from a burning cigarette. Mrs. Hollenbeck smelled the smoke and summoned firemen before the smoldering material endangered the rest of the house. Damage to the mattress and springs was estimated at $90.

At 6:05 p.m. V. Winz, 575 Vista Grande avenue, notified the department after grease from a steak in the oven splattered on to the floor, catching fire.

Chief Elmer Kennedy said the flames filled the house with smoke but damage was negligible.

'Chivalry' Attempt Puts Pair In Jail

Attempt at "chivalry" ended two men in the Daly City jail Saturday afternoon.

Police said the train of events began when Edwin H. Garrett, 41, cook of 101D Hillcrest drive, approached officers and reported that a "lady friend" was being held at a local bar by her ex-husband against her will.

Officers agreed to accompany Garrett to the tavern but upon arrival, cautioned Garrett to remain outside while they investigated. The cook, however, ignored the police request, and before officers had a chance to question the lady, Garrett had appeared.

The lady's husband, George L. Cannon, 46, of 239 West 24th street Los Angeles, spotted Garrett. With an angry look in his eye, he moved toward the cook.

"You ——— ———," Cannon is quoted as saying to the officer. "You can't get in my way."

He shoved the officer aside, and the battle was on.

It ended shortly, however, with Cannon being taken to the hospital where he was treated for a cut face and from thence to the city jail where both the heroes were booked.

Cannon pleaded guilty Monday to a charge of disturbing the peace and agreed to spend the next 10 days in the county jail. Garrett, out on $50 bail, is scheduled to appear in court on the same charge on Tuesday.

FINE MECHANIC $175 ON THREE CHARGES HERE

William Covitti, 34-year-old San Francisco mechanic, was fined $175 in Judge Thomas L. Bocci's municipal court yesterday after pleading guilty to drunk driving, driving on the wrong side of the street, and not having an operator's license in his possession.

Covitti, 179 Albion street, was arrested January 15 after his auto smashed into another vehicle at Skyline boulevard and Edgemar. A Daly City child in the other vehicle suffered injuries in the crack-up.

Gus Aldo, 75, of 498 North Parkview, charged with annoying a child, had his case continued to February 16. Aldo has pleaded not guilty to the molesting of a six-year-old girl which was alleged to have occurred October 10 and 18.

Monroe Edwards, 507 South Mayfair avenue, failed to appear on a charge of being drunk in an auto January 15 at Lake Merced and Alemany boulevards. He had posted $10 bail. A bench warrant was issued for his arrest.

"Shut-ins" go to school by telephone
For many ill or handicapped children facing long confinement at home, there's a new interest in life these days. Thanks to school-to-home telephone service, they can now "attend" classes regularly. A speaker-microphone is put in the classroom and another in the home. They're connected by a private telephone line. The student at home hears everything his teacher and classmates say, and they hear him. As one youngster says: "Before, I just did my lessons at home and that was that. Now something new happens every day." The men and women of Pacific Telephone work to make your telephone more useful every day.

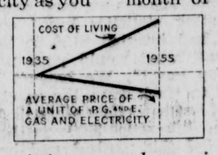
Meet the Moraghans who set up housekeeping in San Francisco in 1936

20 YEARS AGO—when Charles and Jane Moraghan were married, they had just seven appliances in their first home: refrigerator, coffee maker, toaster, waffle iron, radio, mixer, electric clock.
TODAY—the Moraghans and their pretty daughters, Louise and Amy, have 29 appliances in their spacious home: range, refrigerator, freezer, washer and dryer, dishwasher, garbage disposer, rotisserie, waffle iron, toaster, coffee maker, blender, mixer, two irons, hair drier, television, four radios, two phonographs, sewing machine, vacuum cleaner, two electric clocks, furnace and water heater.

Today they buy $23 worth of gas and electricity for $16
...for the average unit cost is about ⅓ less than it was in 1936
Here in California, the average family uses three times as much gas and electricity today as twenty years ago. And chances are you're using more gas and electricity as you add more and more modern appliances and better lighting to your home. Naturally, when you use three times as much, your bill is bound to be higher. But it's far lower than it would have been twenty years ago! That's because P. G. and E. now charges about ⅓ less per unit of gas and electricity, on the average, than it did in 1936. Take the Moraghans: a month or so ago, their bill came to $16. Back in '36, the same amount of gas and electricity would have cost them $22.75! And your bills probably show similar savings. Can you think of anything else that costs you less today than 20 years ago? No wonder we say . . .



Gas and Electricity are cheap in California!

El Carmelo Parlor, N.D.G.W., Celebrates Its 46th Birthday

Editor's note: This is the tenth of a series of articles on local women's organizations. THE RECORD will feature each women's club listed in our files in alphabetical order.

Exactly 46 years ago today, February 26, 1910, 22 young women met at old Colma hall to organize El Carmelo parlor No. 181, Native Daughters of the Golden West. Founder of the parlor was Mrs. Pauline Quirola.

Of the 22 original members, five are still active in the parlor today. They are Charter President Margaret Steele, Charter Organist Hattie Kelly and Charter Members Matilda Heering, Bertha Grady and Ann Manning.

The name "El Carmelo" was chosen as a symbol of high standard and harmony as Carmel mission is one of the outstanding missions in California, according to Publicity Chairman Marie Gilbrech and Recording Secretary Christine Hulme.

Projects of the state-wide organization are many and varied. Through the Native Daughters, oldest patriotic women's club in California, thousands of biographies of the early settlers have been gathered and preserved in handsomely bound books. The ladies also place markers on historical spots throughout the state.

Encourage Education

Encouragement of higher education is evidenced by scholarships which are given for Mills college, University of California at Berkeley and University of California at Los Angeles.

A cherished project is the care of Native Daughter members in the organization's San Francisco home where aid is extended to those who find themselves in need of a helping hand.

Patriotic responsibilities are many and include unceasing efforts in the rehabilitation of war veterans. El Carmelo, although active in many such projects, is particularly interested in Palo Alto veterans whom the ladies remember at Christmas and Easter. The group also has donated a television set to one of the wards and has sent subscriptions to newspapers and magazines.

Other Projects

Other projects in which El Carmelo plays an active part are childrens foundation, mission restoration, pioneer roster, publicity, welfare and philanthropy.

Membership in the parlor now reaches 121 women and includes ladies who are recognized for their leadership by the grand parlor. These members are Mrs. Lorraine Alvigi, supervising district deputy grand president of San Mateo county; Mrs. Dorothy Mackintosh, deputy grand president of Bonita parlor No. 10, Redwood City; Mrs. Anne Biggio, deputy grand president to San Bruno parlor No. 246, San Bruno; Mrs. Madeline Koskela, state history and landmarks committee; Mrs. Dorothy Schlafler, publicity and press committee, and Mrs. Alice Anderson, pioneer roster committee.

Social Events

Besides meeting every first and third Wednesday evenings in each month at Masonic temple, the parlor enjoys many social events. In February the women celebrate the parlor's birthday. At least once a year a pot luck dinner to which the public is invited is held. In May mothers are honored on Mothers' day, while in December members' children are guests at a Christmas party.

Special event planned for the near future is the arrival on February 29 of Grand President Norma Hodson and other officials.

Parlor Officers

El Carmelo officers who will greet the grand president are, Mesdames: Frances Harris, president; Halliet Michelsen, first vice president; Leanor Gray, second vice president; Jacqueline Hulme, third vice president; Jane Cuneo, past president; Betty Hogerheiden, marshall; Christine Hulme, recording secretary; Julia Romer, treasurer; Dorothy Mackintosh, financial secretary; Madeline Koskela, organist; Carol Landgren, inside sentinel; Marlene Anglin, outside sentinel; Anne Biggio, Margaret McDonald and Dorothy Linehan, trustees.

California-born women interested in information about joining the parlor may contact President Harris at JU 5-6536 or Recording Secretary Hulme at PL 5-6451.

HOW TO INCREASE CALIFORNIA'S RECOVERABLE OIL RESERVES

We believe every citizen and taxpayer has a personal stake in the Oil and Gas Conservation Initiative

A huge increase in California's recoverable oil reserves will result from an oil conservation measure for which title has been approved by the Attorney General.

Prohibits Waste of a Vital California Resource

This initiative differs sharply from other oil measures brought before the public in the past. It does not permit market demand curtailment and proration. It is designed solely to give the oil industry legal tools, to match its know-how, to carry out production practices necessary to enable the industry to be good stewards of California's oil reserves.

Insures continued high employment

It will enable a majority of the operators in a field to bring about practices which will prolong immeasurably the lives of fields in which they are employed, insure continuing employment to those in the industry far beyond present expectations, and provide a strong bulwark for the cornerstone represented by oil production that underlies California's whole economy.

Oil means three billion dollars in pocketbooks of Californians

The public welfare involved in good oil conservation is indicated by the fact that in 1954 the various petroleum products derived from California oil production added about three billion dollars of new wealth to the State.

For two years Richfield has conducted a public information program about oil.

As a public service and in our own self-interest, we have been telling the people of California how tremendous quantities of recoverable oil are being wasted by being left unrecovered in the ground.

Richfield engineers have told meetings of women's groups, community leaders and conservation groups how the physical waste of oil could be prevented, and the size of the public's stake in good oil conservation practices.

These meetings have always ended with strong expressions of support for action that would protect the public interest in this vital natural resource.

Public has demanded this constructive action

It is because of the very favorable public response to the information program that we decided to sponsor an initiative measure for an oil conservation law and bring the matter directly before the people.

Not enough new pools are being discovered in California to keep oil production equal to ever-increasing demand. We are now sending dollars abroad for the purchase of oil—dollars that would otherwise be circulated among our own people in payment for goods and services of all kinds.

Initiative provides only sure way to keep California's oil prosperity

There is one sure way to increase California's reserves of recoverable oil and thus assure California of continued prosperity. That way is unit operation in as many oil pools as possible. California producers need the law to facilitate unitization.

My associate, R. W. Ragland, and I are the sole sponsors of the initiative petition. But discussions which we have had recently with other oil people indicate that a majority of the industry will support the proposal.

We expect the measure to qualify for the general election ballot, November 6, 1956.

Chas. S. Jones

Mountain View Man Arrested On Drunk Driving Count Here

A 25-year-old Mountain View man was arrested here on a charge of drunken driving early Sunday morning after his car collided with another auto at Gambetta and Hillside boulevard. Released on $250 bail and scheduled to appear in municipal court on Thursday is Raymond D. Albert, 1239 Springer road, Mountain View.

Officers were called to the scene at 1:30 a.m. after Albert's car crashed into an auto driven by Robert W. Archini, 179 Sadowa street, San Francisco. Police said Albert's vehicle was the same one they had seen 45 minutes earlier speeding down Mission street. Police did not pursue his car at that time because they were questioning another motorist, the report stated.

When officers arrived at the scene of the accident, they said they found Albert seated on the front fender of his parked auto. Besides the drunk driving count, Albert was cited for following too closely behind another vehicle, failure to stop at an arterial and for driving with an improper license.

Because he had a broken jaw, he was released to the custody of his father.

September Burglary Solved In Kentucky

The September 16 burglary of Hammar's Service Station, 6098 Mission street, appeared solved yesterday a distance of more than 2000 miles away.

Louisville, Ky., officials said a 16-year-old youth picked up as a delinquent had admitted breaking into the Daly City station and stealing $360.

The youth, on probation in Santa Clara county, was with a Napa escapee, but his companion was not implicated in the burglary.

VFW Commander Urges Veterans To 'Join Up'

"With the Hoover commission and other agencies and individuals taking pot-shots intended to sharply reduce benefits to veterans, and their dependents, the Veterans of Foreign Wars is calling upon the approximately 15,000,000 unorganized veterans in the country to join up and resist these so-called economizers lest veterans are stripped of all the equities they have earned over the years through service to country in times of peril," declares Commander B. Glendenning of VFW post No. 2044.

Commander Glendenning said in a statement in connection with national VFW week January 22-28 that "there are firmly entrenched, well financed forces at work to reduce the veteran to the status of the ordinary citizen with no special consideration whatsoever, regardless of the sacrifice he made."

Statement of Councilman Micheal DeBernardi

The wishes and desires of the people of Daly City are always the first consideration of myself as well as the other councilmen. Anytime legislation is passed by any legislative body it affects the people. The primary aim of our council has been to legislate for the benefit of all of the people of the City even though some minority may oppose such legislation.

All bids let by the City Council have been in accordance with State law, and even those bids not being limited by State law have been let in a manner more economical to the taxpayers of Daly City.

All departments of the City, under the control of the Council, have adhered to the fiscal procedures under State and local law. We have broadened our accounting department to make certain of this and also to double check expenditures.

In no manner has your City Council violated its trust to the citizens of Daly City. We have refused the dictates of a few malcontents but have always worked for the betterment of all the citizens and for a greater Daly City.

ANSWER TO STATEMENT

I, Sanford G. Vickers, emphatically deny these charges by Ruth A. Moseley and the so called Better Government League, whose members are not listed in any manner.

There are a few malcontents who create animosity in government. They are concerned only in personal gain and vested interests.

I, Sanford G. Vickers, have studied many of the vast problems before our city.

I have given my most sincere time and efforts to these problems. I have voted honestly and conscientiously on every issue for betterment of all the citizens of our city.

My goal is to work for organized government, extended facilities, services, and to improve public relations with our citizens.

Many cities throughout the nation have corrected or are correcting many inequities in local government that have been existing for many years. We likewise, are doing the same.

The rapid growth of our city has caused many problems that require expansion of the administrative tools of government.

All business transactions of our city are carried out according to general law of the State of California and the city ordinances of our city.

I have the greatest confidence in our council-manager form of government.

I have and will solemnly put forth every effort to do justice to carefully protect the rights of the people.

The people of Daly City have given me a high trust, I have not, nor will not, betray that trust.

ANSWER TO STATEMENT

Under the laws governing Municipal Elections Recall, a councilman may if he desires reply to charges levied against him.

I should like very much to reply to the charges of Paul G. Selmi and his so-called Better Government Group, but since the charges consist of a series of vague generalities my reply can be no more specific than the charges.

I believe that my actions and those of all the council were in the best interests of all the people.

Our bidding procedures have conformed to the letter of the law. In my opinion a bidding policy of economic benefit to every taxpayer takes priority over the wishes of minority pressure groups seeking to benefit from awards of city contracts.

Fiscal procedures under direct control of the Council and the City Manager, are rigidly controlled by State and local laws. To change from these is virtually impossible.

I feel somewhat ridiculous in attempting to combat the "Windmill" of wild unsound charges of a disgruntled, frustrated City Treasurer. I will continue to remember my oath of office, to represent all of the people. This is your city, take pride in it by coming to council meetings.

"Refused Dictates"

"In no manner has your city council violated its trust to the citizens of Daly City. We have refused the dictates of a few malcontents but have always worked for the betterment of all the citizens."

DeBernardi's recall notice was signed by Andrew Van Der Werff.

Full text of the councilmen's answers appear in the legal notice section of this week's paper.

Next Thursday the recall group may begin circulation of petitions to gain signatures. A total of approximately 1200 signatures on each recall petition will be required to force the special election.

The necessary signatures must be filed with the city clerk by March 12, or within 60 days after publication of the notice of intention to seek recall.

JESD Temporary School Is Under Doelger Study

perintendent H. Z. Weibel:

1. Could an Oddstad-plan temporary school be made available adjacent to the Abraham Lincoln site?
2. Could the convertible school include as many as 12 units?
3. Could the school include as few as five units?
4. What is the earliest date the plant could be made available?
5. What is the rental estimate by the Doelger corporation?

Original plan, advanced by the James L. Snell PTA committee on the elimination of double sessions, was for Doelger to provide five houses adjacent to the Lincoln school site. These unfinished residences, connected by temporary corridors, would each furnish two class rooms, one on each floor. Thus ten class rooms would be provided in all.

DC Man Arrested After Car Collides With Bus

Patrick Joseph O'Neil, 45, 268 Westlake avenue, is scheduled to appear in municipal court Tuesday on a charge of drunk driving here Friday afternoon.

O'Neill was booked at the city jail after his car collided with a Greyhound bus at Westlake and Mission streets, police said. They added that O'Neill failed to make a proper hand signal when he performed a left turn, thus colliding with the bus.

A sobriety test at Junipero Serra hospital proved positive.

Colma Loses Opener In Inter-School Play

Colma opened the Inter-School Basketball league Friday by suffering a 39-26 loss to a taller South San Francisco team.

The Colma club stayed within distance of the SSF five in the first half, trailing only 16-13, but South City's height started paying off in points in the final two quarters.

High scorers for Colma were Tom Kett and Danny O'Connor, 6 apiece, followed by Webb Parker and Richard Mortola, 4 each, Arthur Banos, 3, Richard Reese, 2, and Michael Woodbury, 1. Other local participants were D. Spisak, Paul Hanley, G. Tiedje and Homer Dickinson.

This Friday the Colma quintet will face Burlingame Intermediate school on the latter's courts.

The Inter-School league is made up of teams from South San Francisco, Sharp Park, Burlingame, San Bruno, and Colma.

A total of eight games will be held.

OLPH ENDS GABRIEL'S WIN SKEIN IN HOOP PLAY

Bill Whalen poured through four fourth quarter field goals to pace OLPH to the Daly City Recreation Basketball "A" league's major upset Saturday, as the parochial school team knocked off previously undefeated St. Gabriel's Gulls, 38-31.

OLPH had to overcome a 12-2 first quarter deficit to claim the victory. Rallying the second period, the parochial five moved to a 16-16 tie. Whalen, Lycett and Wisman provided the scoring punch in the third period, and kept OLPH within two points at the end of the quarter, 26-24. Then Whalen caught fire in the fourth session, netting eight points, while Lycett, Wisman and Nolan connected for two-pointers, as the OLPHers showed St. Gabriel's their heels.

Whalen won scoring honors with 19 digits for the day.

Laguna Keeps Pace

Other Class A games found Laguna Salada extending their undefeated record to six straight, as they downed St. Stephen's, 39-32. Henry Caldwell, with 14, and Bob Moreland, 11, led the way for Laguna Salada.

St. Gabriel's Eagles still remained the "team to beat" as they crushed Broadmoor Comets, 54-28, holding on to their first-place tie with Laguna Salada. The two league-leaders are scheduled to meet February 4 in a contest which should decide the championship.

Lincoln handed Holy Angels their fifth straight defeat, 24-21, as Dick Reese paced the winners with 12.

Broadmoor Hawks topped the Brisbane Dons, 32-27.

Holy Angels, Colma Win

The Class B play saw Holy Angels and Colma continue to share the league leadership, as they both took their sixth straight wins.

Holy Angels defeated OLPH II, 32-5, as Bob Uccelli collected high point honors with 12, followed by Jim McDonald, 10, and Bill Donati, 8.

Colma overpowered OLPH I, 37-12. For Colma the leading scorers were George Claus, Sonny Stoller and Barry Krohn, 8 apiece. Jerry Kennedy scored the same amount for the losers.

In other games, St. Gabriel's Raiders nudged Laguna Salada, 19-16; St. Gabriel's Greyhounds soundly trounced Broadmoor Dodgers, 61-13; and Brisbane won a 2-0 forfeit victory over Broadmoor Rebels.

corporation had given the same opinion.

Grading on the school property was done by the Doelger corporation.

When quizzed on the extent of the damage to the Bullis property, Weibel admitted that land in the backyard had slipped down the cliff, leaving the Bullis fence hanging in mid-air. He termed this damage "rather minor."

Also visible in the Bullis backyard are huge cracks in a concrete walkway, situated in the middle of the yard.

"Didn't Take Care"

Hearing Weibel's report on the problem, Trustee Katherine Mullen commented, "Other people in the same area have had mud slides in their back yard. They probably didn't take care of their backyard if it fell."

"The Bullis people are naturally concerned," interjected Acting Chairman Henry Kraus. "However, we have to establish liability before we can say one way or the other." Later Kraus commented, "We don't want to inadvertently lead them to think we'll take care of the house."

The board terminated discussion by authorizing Weibel to contact the district attorney on the question of liability.

Golf Tips

By BILL McARTHUR

Professional, Treasure Island Driving Range

What Type of Swing Is Right For Me?

Golf swings are for the most part broken up into two types. A flat swing, and an upright swing. Both are sound swings, but the type of swing you use depends a great deal on your physical requirements. Golfers who are of short stature will find a flat swing more to their liking, while golfers who are tall should learn to swing upright.

Golfers who are about 5 foot, 9 inches or under would be better off with a more or less flat swing. By this I mean that in order for them to sole the club correctly they must push it out away from them slightly so that they will have more freedom of the arms and a wider turn in the backswing. This position gives them more room to swing out at the ball on the down swing.

For those who are around the 6 foot mark or over, an upright swing is far more suitable. By this I mean they may stand over the ball a little closer, taking the club almost straight up and back with just a slight inside out swing. The taller golfer does not necessarily need as wide a stance as the golfer of shorter stature. Shortie should keep his heels a full shoulder width apart, while our tall in the saddle friend should try to keep his heel spread just inside the width of his shoulders. This of course is meant when using the woods. Naturally as the club gets shorter so does the width of the stance. Above all avoid any tension in the legs during the swing.

Whether you have a flat swing or an upright one let it be smooth and easy. Remember the old saying. Everyone loves to play a golfer with a fast backswing and a heavy pocketbook.

Next Week—Are all golf clubs the same?

Carlmont Here Tonight

TRIBE SHARES FIRST AFTER NARROW WIN OVER WARRIORS

Jefferson High school varsity basketball club has a piece of the NPAL lead, and they are odds-on favorites to hold their position tonight (Friday) when they face winless Carlmont at the Daly City gym.

Action starts with the 30s contest at 7:15 p.m.

Most recent victim of the Indian varsity was South San Francisco, who succumbed to the Tribe, 40-38, Friday on the strength of a last-second field goal by Larry Pottinger, who made his three minutes on the court pay off.

Pottinger left the contest after two minutes when he injured his back after a jump ball leap.

With a minute remaining, Coach Mike Orlich sent Pottinger, the club's leading scorer, back into the game as the score was tied, 38-38.

Curtis Ties Him Up

With five seconds remaining and the Warriors Dean Prince controlling the ball for a final shot opportunity, Bill Curtis tied Prince up for a jump ball.

Curtis tapped to Darrell Hutchenson, who relayed to Pottinger. The latter executed a lay-up over Prince's outstretched arms to notch two points and the game as the buzzer sounded.

Center Ray Schultz controlled the boards and shared scoring honors with Hutchenson, each getting 12.

The Jeffs held a 10-8 first quarter edge, 22-21 at the half, 32-31 at the third-quarter's close, but had to battle grimly to save victory in the final quarter.

It was the fourth win in five starts for the Indians, and gave them a share of first place in the northern division with San Mateo.

30s Win One

The Daly City 30s got back into the win column with a 34-26 victory over the Warrior lights. Gene "Puzzy" Firth accounted for 11 of his club's points, hitting on jump shots from the corner.

Trailing, 8-7, at the quarter, the Indians moved to a 14-12 halftime advantage, then were tied up, 23-23, at the third-quarter's end. In the fourth period they held the Warriors to 3 points, while getting 11 for themselves.

Coach Tony Giammona's papooses now have two wins, three losses, but are expected to even their record out tonight against Carlmont.

Alumni Teams Lose Pair To Jefferson High Clubs

The stars of yesteryear had plenty spirit but not enough oomph as the Jefferson High school varsity and 30s basketball teams turned in wins Tuesday over the graduate clubs in the annual alumni games.

Larry Pottinger's 10 point outburst off jump shots in the third quarter played a big part in the varsity's 56-48 win over the alums.

Up until the final quarter, it was a close contest as the alumni's Jack Detterman, All-PAL, vintage 1951, hit field goals from everywhere on the court.

It was 16-14, alumni advantage, at the quarter, and the Indians still trailed, 22-20, at the half.

But Pottinger's four field goals, two free throws, in the third period provided the bulk of the Indians 19 points that quarter, as they spurted to a 39-29 lead.

Sub Helps Out

Substitute Delmar Scott helped the varsity cling to their lead in the final period as he tanked eight points.

Where the Indians shined was on the foul lane, as they made good on 24 out of 36 free throws.

Detterman was the stand-out for the alumni, garnering 20 points, as he missed only two field goal tries all night.

Larry Blanchard, the league's leading scorer in 1954, was unable to muster his polish of old, as he could tank only three points. Wayne Lovelace picked up 11, Ben Parodi, 8, Don Wilson, 2, Bob Murchison, 4, and Wally Honeywell failed to score.

Pottinger was high for the school boys with 12, followed by Scott, 10, Ray Vuillemainroy, 9, Jim Honeywell, 8, Bill Curtis, 6, Darrell Hutchenson, 5, Tom Cloutier, 3, Terry Ferris, 2, and Hank Edwards, 1.

30s A Thriller

The lightweight setto had the crowd standing in the final minutes as the high schoolers won out, 47-46.

Ernie Howern, an anonymous bench-rider up to Tuesday night, tossed through four free throws and a pair of field goals in the final quarter to contribute in a large measure to the victory, after the preps had trailed through most of the going.

Gene "Puzzy" Firth had a one and one four shot coming up in the waning second, with the alumni leading, 46-45.

Firth popped in the first, but missed the bonus shot. Howern was right under the bucket and jammed through the two-pointer.

As the clock was about to sound, the alumni's Babe Anguillo raced down court with the ball, and threw mightily for the basket as he was still in the Jeff team's territory. The long-range gunnery unbelievably hit its mark, but the referee ruled the buzzer had sounded before Anguillo lofted the ball.

Nineteen free throws out of 35 chances were made by the Indians.

Gary Ryan was the offensive cog for the Jeffs, netting 15 points. He was followed by Howern, 10, George Rocchi, Stan Weld and Pete Garcia, 4 apiece, Firth and Dennis Marc, 3 apiece, and Jerry Twitty and Barry Haanan, each.

For the alumni, Al Lagomarsino was tops with 11, followed by Larry Hutchenson, 10, Dick Kalinin and George Miller, 8 apiece, and Babe Anguillo, 5.

DeLucca's Sizzling 652 Series Anchors V & F Keg Lead

Babe DeLucca continued to burn up the alleys in the Daly City-Colma Bowling league Tuesday at Brentwood as he rapped out a 652 series, the season's best, in pacing Vince & Fred to three victories over Brentwood Lodge.

The trio of wins kept V & F firmly entrenched in first place with 37½ wins, 16½ losses.

DeLucca turned in his torrid series with games of 215, 224 and 213.

Tony Santos helped the league-leader's cause with a 555 series, fashioned on games of 192, 164, 199.

Westlake Homes held on to second place with two wins and a tie in their outing against Paul's Flowers. Dick Keefer's 547 series paced the Westlakers.

San Pedro Lunch maintained their third place position with a pair of victories over Luce Meat, aided by Otto Schramm's 548 series and Paul Purpora's 515.

In other contests Thur Meats was downed twice by Carlos Pizzeria, while Daly City Cleaners took a pair from Starway Cocktails.

FARM HOOP PLAY UNDERWAY; CC BLASTS COLMA

The Daly City Recreation department's third annual Farm Basketball league got off to a flying start last week when the powerful Community Center exploded in the final period to overwhelm a fast moving Colma five, 45-23.

The Colma five, on the strength of long set shots by Tom Fenn and John Renoti, in addition to Anthony Stagnaro's jump shots and pair of free throws, commanded an 11 to 5 lead at the end of the first quarter. Andy Ruelas of the Community Center squad caught fire in the second period on three straight lay-ins to bring his team back to within two points of the leaders at the half time.

Playing almost perfect defense in the third quarter, the Center team allowed the visitors only two field goals while Green, Ruelas and Myron Kay pumped in short ones for a 19-19 tie as the period ended.

With one minute gone in the fourth quarter the hot Community Center club erupted for 26 points in the final six minutes of play. Ruelas, who copped high point honors for the night with a total of 23 points, contributed 16 points during the onslaught. Anthony Stagnaro with seven and Larry Harper with six were high for the losers.

The second game of the evening proved a mild surprise when the Marchbanks Argonauts stunned the favored Jefferson Lakers with a 43-33 defeat. The Argonauts, with big Larry Schoenfelt controlling both boards, took command at the end of the first period and continued to dominate the game with long shots from the outside and sinking the sure points on the inside. Larry Schoenfelt hit 15 for the winners while Ted Amirkhan's last half 8 sparked the losers.

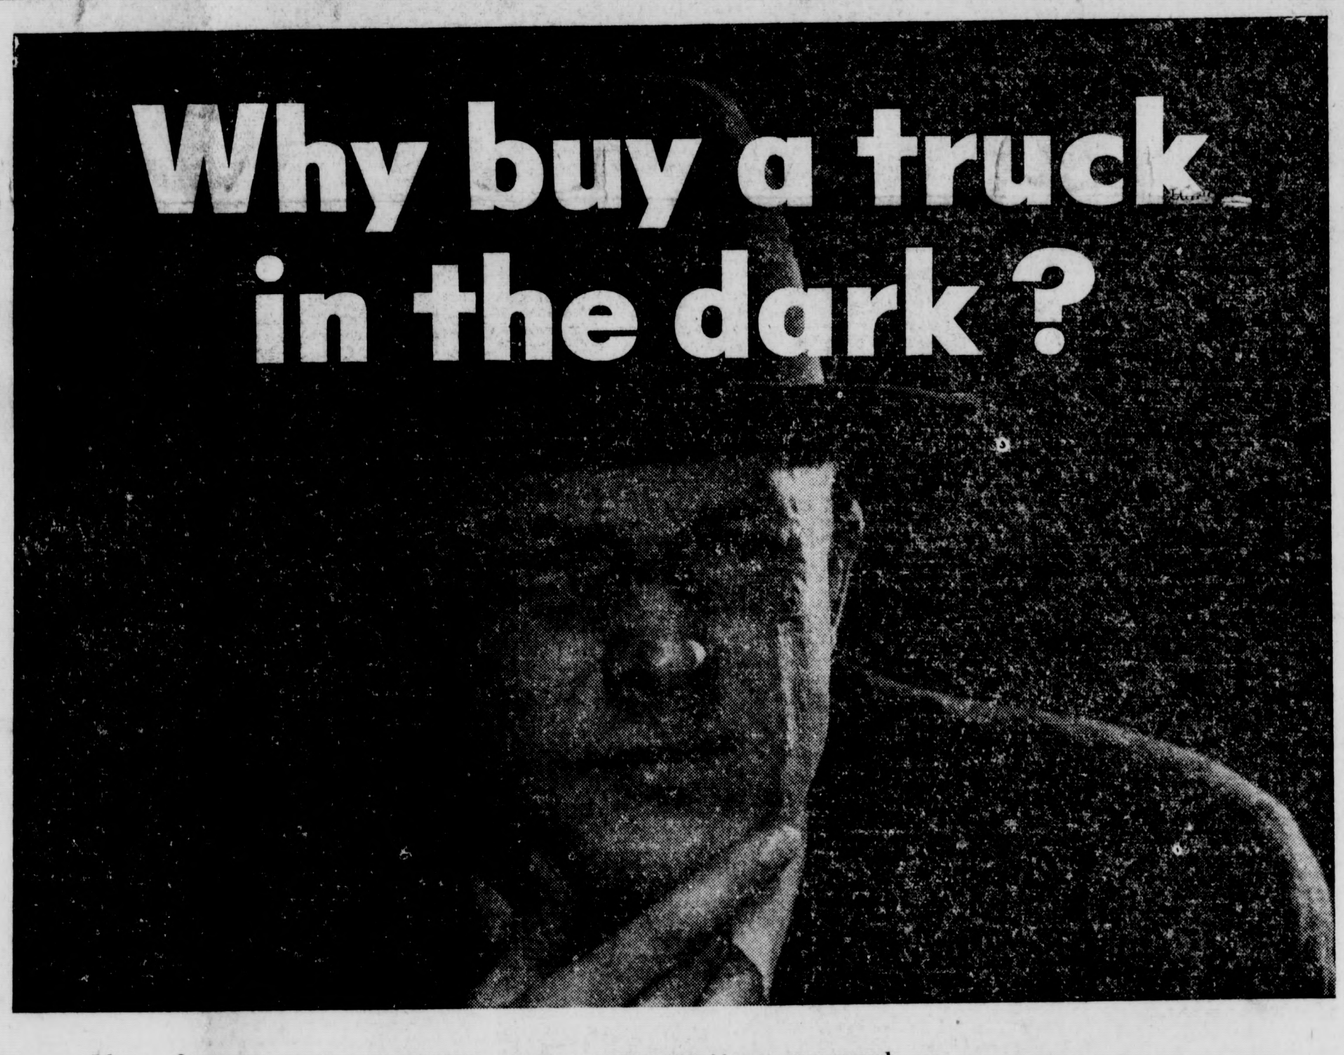
Why buy a truck in the dark?



If you buy a new truck after looking at only one make, it's like making a deal in the dark. You can't be sure of getting the most for your money.

★ Most standard V-8 horsepower of all leading makes—½-ton through 3½-ton range. You'll get faster trips—more work done with DODGE.

★ Shortest turning radius. You'll park more easily, wheel through traffic quicker with DODGE.

★ Biggest cabs, with biggest wrap-around windshield. You'll enjoy roomier comfort, safer vision with DODGE.

★ Highest payload capacities . . . pick-ups providing up to 22% more payload than others. You'll haul bigger, more profitable loads with DODGE.

★ Prices down with the lowest. Comparative facts show that, feature for feature and dollar for dollar, the real value is DODGE.

Next truck you buy, don't deal in the dark. Turn a bright light on the facts—see Dodge before you buy.
